No 1091 / 1 S 2 - 32

Bangalore dated the 20th February 1932

Serial No.
1	Letter No. 167/31-32 Dt. 1.7.32 from the Magistrate communicating sanction to the proposal to transfer the Swamy lands of the defunct Chandrasekhara Devasthanam temple to the Sri Venugopalakrishna Swamy temple at Ambalapuzha Taluk.

1 S. No. 11 (dry) measuring 31 cents belonging to Sri Chandrasekhara devasthanam temple is stated to have been a Swamy land from time immemorial. (Vide Amildar's report of 13.8.31

2 S. No. 39 (wet) measuring 1.26 acres is stated to yield annually a sum of Rs 20/- (Vide same report)

3 It is also seen from the Amildar's Statement of 13.10.30 (Vide column 10) that the above lands are in possession of the Archak. Para 2 of the P.C. also shows that there has been no worship in Sri Chandrasekhara Swamy temple for the last 40 to 50 years & yet the Archak Ramabhadra has been enjoying the produce of the lands. This does not appear to have engaged the attention of the local authorities till 13.2.1928. No action appears to have been taken for the recovery from the Archak at Rs 20/- a year for the period he has enjoyed the Swamy lands though there is no worship.

B. Srinivasa Iyengar, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.
Financial Department.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith copy of letter No.A.5-1962-28 dated 25th November 1931 together with the file of vernacular papers received from the Deputy Commissioner, Kadur District, recommending that for reasons stated the inam lands endowed to Chennakesavaswami temple at Ambale in the Chikmagalur Taluk may be transferred to the Sri Venugopalakrishnaswami temple in the village.

2. From the Amildar's report dated 9th December 1928 it will be seen that worship in the temple of Chennakesavaswami is not being conducted for the last 40 or 50 years and that a sum of Rs.1000/- would be required if a vigraha in place of the mutilated one has to be got prepared, which the villagers are not in a positinn to subscribe. The Temple of Sri Venugopalakrishnaswami is reported to be very popular and it has only a monthly tasdik of Re.1-7-3.

3. As both the temples are situated in the same village and belong to the same denomination and as the temple of Sri Venugopala Krishnaswami is answering the religious needs of the villagers, I beg to recommend that the Deputy Commissioner's proposal to transfer the inam lands of the defunct temple to the Venugopalakrishnaswami's

Temple may be approved.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

In forwarding herewith the vernacular file ending with the --- Chikmagalur Taluk Amildar's report No.33/28-29 dated 15-8-1931 in -- the matter of transfer of the inam lands endowed to Sri Chennakeshava-Swamy temple at Ambale village to the Sri Venugopalakrishnadevaru of the same village, I have the honor to state that on a report received from the Amildar of the Chikmagalur taluk that the right hand of the deity Sri Chennakeshavadevaru has been broken and that in consequence it was ordered to treat this institution as a defunct one. This institution the worship of the deity has been stopped, ~~it was~~ endowed with the -- inam lands as noted in the margin in the same village. The villagers in their statements dated 25-11-1928 and 11-8-1929 (Flag A & B) state that a sum of Rs.1000/- would be required if a new vigraha is to be installed in place of the damaged one, that it is not possible to collect the said amount from the devotees and that the inam lands of this institution may be transferred to the name of Sri Venugopalakrishna Devaru. The Amildar --- reports that these two are vishnu temples worshipped by Brahmins and recommends the transfer of the above lands to Sri Venugopalakrishnadevaru which has no inam lands and has a monthly tasdik grant of only Rs.1-7-3.
